

NOCCA Parent Bill of Rights

Parents, your involvement in your child's education is a significant factor in increasing their achievement.

As we are partners in this work together, you deserve to know your rights. The Louisiana Parents' Bill of Rights outlines your following rights:

- To examine textbooks, curriculum, and other materials used in your child's classroom.
- To inspect your child's school records and receive their education records within 10 business days of the request.
- To be notified when medical services are offered.
- To be notified of criminal action taken against your child or by your child.
- That the school shall not discriminate against your child based on sincerely held religious beliefs of the child's family.
- To receive written notice and the option to opt out of surveys asking certain questions.
- To access the final school calendar at least 30 days prior to the beginning of the school year.
- To view a complete listing of all school fees and the purpose of each.
- To view any school uniform requirements on the school's website.
- To be promptly informed if your child is at risk of not being promoted to the next grade level.
